ABOUT FOOD LITERACY CENTER

What is food literacy?

Food Literacy is understanding the impact of our food choices on our health, environment, and economy – and understanding that these impacts are not experienced equitably.

We believe that being food literate empowers us to make informed choices. We provide food education in a way that's fun, approachable, and practical.

Why is food literacy so important?

Only 4% of kids are eating the recommended amount of fruits and veggies.

In Sacramento, 40% of kids suffer from childhood obesity or are overweight, putting them at increased risk for Type 2 diabetes. These diet-related diseases are preventable — if we eat our vegetables.

Food Literacy Center teaches cooking, nutrition, gardening, and active-play classes in Sacramento Title-1 schools where students are at highest risk for diet-related diseases. Most of them are food and nutrition insecure and are first exposed to fresh, healthy fruits and vegetables in their food literacy classes.

How does food literacy education move the needle?

Simply put, we inspire kids to eat their veggies!

We teach free cooking, nutrition, and gardening classes to 2,000 students across 20 Title-1 schools in two school districts: Sacramento City Unified and Robla.

We host free kids' farmers markets right before major school breaks. This gives students the opportunity to replicate what they've learned in class at home with their families, supporting not only the whole health of the student, but also supporting their families' health.

We bring a trauma-informed approach to food literacy education to promote resiliency, joy, and wellness for Sacramento students and their families.

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES EVENTS

Sponsor one (or more!) of our annual Kids' Farmers Markets, a feel-good way to support our mission to inspire kids to eat their veggies!

Our farmers markets are a celebration of the completion of our 10-week curriculum. The markets provide opportunities for kids to use 'Food Literacy Bucks' to shop for fresh fruits and vegetables, giving them the opportunity to choose their favorite produce, learn financial literacy skills, and practice what they've learned in class with their families at home.

These markets are scheduled right before major school breaks to ensure kids who are experiencing food and nutrition insecurity go home with fresh fruits and vegetables.

FOOD LITERACY MONTH & VEGGIE OF THE YEAR

September is Food Literacy Month in California.

In 2012, Food Literacy Center worked with the California Legislature to pass a resolution declaring September Food Literacy Month — a time to raise statewide awareness about the need for cooking and nutrition education for kids.

In 2013, Yolo County, Sacramento County, and City of Sacramento also passed our resolution. In 2015, the State of Washington passed a resolution inspired by the California resolution we championed.

That's a fig deal!

The annual campaign begins online and on social media and email newsletters but extends far and wide, earning media and reaching our partners across 20 Robla and Sacramento City Unified School District schools as well as thousands of local foodies, donors, and families.

Now in our 11th year, Food Literacy Month is our largest and most widely celebrated event that includes a month-long campaign to support food literacy education and the wildly popular Veggie of the Year competition that pits some of the region's most talented and notable chefs against each other to create the tastiest veggie-forward bite and for tough critics — kids!

Veggie of the Year Annual Chef Competition

Sponsoring Food Literacy Month includes Veggie of the Year!

This competition is a feel-good way to support our mission to inspire kids to eat their vegetables and support our local farmers!

Starting with the September 1 kick-off of Food Literacy Month, the public and our food literacy kids vote for their top five vegetables, which are then assigned to 5 local, high-profile chefs. They then create a tasty, veggie-forward bite featuring their assigned veggie. The winner is decided by food literacy students at our event held at a local elementary school. Community members also attend and cheer the students on. It's a berry blast!
